

When Toyota needed something flashy to spell out the pros and cons of alternative fuel options to the punters at this year's Sydney Motor Show, they got George P Johnson on the blower. George P Johnson in turn got display industry leader, Staging Rentals on the blower to make the wicked casement. Big Kahuna Imagineering was the next point of call to fabricate the highly stylised hand nozzle, its holder and an array of selection ports – that punters wouldn't maim or souvenir! The custom, one off build looks and feels like it has come straight off a production line.

Speed Racer Ella "Fang It" Colhoun gets the all clear from her Pit Crew Harry "She'll be apples" Colhoun with a hot late entry for the Motor Show.

Featuring 90 shore A cast rubber mouldings and satin chrome plated aluminum surfaces the effective switch device was a pretty sweet interactive gadget.
